THE GLOBAL INTERSTATE SYSTEM

THE STATE

- A nation or territory that is considered to be politically organized under one (1) government.

Four elements of the state

1. Population
2. Territory
3. Government
4. Sovereignty
 - Internal
 - External

STATE AND SOVEREIGNTY

- State emerged in 15th – 16th century.
- The concept of statehood came from "Peace of Westphalia"(1648).
- But this was challenge by Napoleon Bonaparte during the French revolution using the Napoleonic code.
- And after the Battle of Waterloo in 1815, Concert of Europe was created and this is the international organization.

STATE AND GLOBALIZATION

- Because of Globalization, It is believed that it will be a demise to the Sovereignty of the state and weaken the power of the state to control their own economies and societies.
- But some believes that this will help to dissolve boundaries among states.

SHIFTING FROM INTERNATIONAL POLITICS TO GLOBAL POLITICS

- JEREMY BENTHAM, the person who introduced the word "International Relations" to the world.
- It was known before as "Inter-national" or "Inter-state"
- This simply means that there is a growing interdependence between states.

NEW ACTOR OF THE WORLD STAGE

- Transnational Corporations (TNCs)
- Non-government Organization (NGO)
- Non-State Institutions
- Terrorist group
- Capitalist movement

INCREASED INTERDEPENDENCE AND INTERCONNECTION

- Substantial growth of cross-border or transnational, flows and transaction, movements of people, goods, money, information and ideas.
- Also the problems and issues such as global warming, terrorism, and pandemic diseases that cannot be resolve by any states alone.

THE TREND TOWARDS GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

- Establishment of International Organizations such as IMF, World Trade Organization (WTO), European Union, and United Nations.
